For God so loved the world

From the President/CEO

At Every Home for Christ, we love stories. We pay attention to the stories of what's happening in the lives of real people and communities as a result of our ministry activity around the world. We also care about sharing those stories with you because you play a key role in them by partnering with us. Authentic testimonies of the Lord's work in the lives of people all over the planet bring us together. They cut through our denominational divides and theological disagreements to remind us of the one thing that matters: our shared calling to carry Christ to everyone, everywhere, in every generation.

Yet stories aren't the only way we look at this. We also pay attention to the numbers. The global Every Home fellowship is a community of "numbers people": in over 150 nations, our local leaders are counting the actual cost of literally reaching every single person in their nations and communities—down to the one. That's how we make sure we don't miss anyone.

Today, Every Home ministries around the world are compelled by the Oikos initiative: our commitment to carrying Christ to every person, everywhere, by the end of 2038. Oikos is a generational rally cry we launched across our ministry in 2019. Anchored in our belief that every single person is valued and dignified in the eyes of a God who is love, Oikos is a faith-filled willingness to do whatever it takes to make sure no one gets left behind.

In this annual report, we're using numbers to tell the unfolding story of Oikos as we report on ministry activity for 2022. We're visualizing what it will take to carry Christ to everyone, how far we've already come, and the work that remains. We're celebrating all that the Lord has already done, and we're staying focused on what's ahead—on who is ahead. We look at numbers because they represent real people. We count down to the one because the one is a beating heart with a longing soul in need of Christ.

We're visualizing what it will take to carry Christ to everyone, how far we've already come, and the work that remains.

The story this tells follows the story of redemption. It's the good news that God so loved the world, that Christ came to us, and that Christ builds and sends his Church into the world for the sake of all mankind. It's the hope that he's making all things new. Oikos is some small part of giving our lives to be part of that story.

We're a global fellowship of local catalysts committed to seeing the story of redemption flourish in the Church. We inspire and empower the Church to carry Christ to their world. As a result, people carry Christ to their neighbors and communities in ways that make sense to them.

Your impact in this story cannot be overstated. Because of you, believers across the globe are being inspired and empowered to carry Christ to their world. The global Church is growing in its redemptive capacity because your generosity means greater access to visionary partnership, training, and resources. Local believers are expanding their reach, taking responsibility to carry Christ to their circles. We'll never be able to comprehend the impact of this work, but our trust in the Lord leads us to believe it's changing the world according to his will.

May you be encouraged and inspired by this report. On behalf of this global network of local catalysts of redemption—thank you.
